

Welcome to Room B117

January 8 - 12

This week at school!

- This week we will study the author & illustrator, Eric Carle. Children will begin to notice common characteristics related to his stories.
- New sight words: me & we
- In Math, we will use position words to describe relative positions of objects in the environment.
- In Social Studies, we will discuss Martin Luther King, Jr. and we will create a book based on MLK Jr's I Have a Dream speech.
- In Writing, we will brainstorm ways to improve ourselves by creating a New Year's Resolution.

Important Reminders

- 1/9 - 3rd Quarter begins.
- 1/15 - No School
- Kindergarten students will receive their first report card on January 19th. Report cards are only available online. Instructions to login will be sent home in your child's folder on Tuesday, January 9th.
- Please reinforce neat handwriting; many students are rushing through their work.
- Remember to have your child read their book-in-a-bag every evening Monday -Thursday; they are building stamina in reading!
- Thank you to Mrs. Seigferth, Mrs. Grindall, Mrs. Grandhi, and Mrs. Fierst for providing a fun Holiday party.
- If your child wears boots to school, please be sure to also pack shoes. When kids wear boots in the classroom our floors end up with puddles. Thank you!
- We are starting our Seuss guess bag this week. Each night one child will take home the guess bag and find one item from home to place inside. They will write 3 clues on the card (included in the bag). During our morning meeting the selected student will read the clues to see if a classmate can figure out the mystery. There are directions in the bag with an example. I did the first item. Clue #1 - It is silver. Clue #2 - It is made of metal. Clue #3 - It can go down the stairs but not up. The answer is a slinky.
