

Welcome to Room B117

February 12 - 16

This week at school!

- This week we will read stories that contain onomatopoeia. These are words that imitate the actual sound they describe. (buzz, meow, zip).
- Sight Word this week: are.
- We will continue to learn about hunks & chunks. This is a fun way to understand digraphs (2 letters combined to make one sound). This week's hunk & chunk: /ar/.
- Students will review encoding and decoding CVC words as well as practice CVCC (words like help & belt) and CCVC words (words like flat & grin).
- In Writing, students will create a few fun books centered around the number 100.
- In Math, students will solve addition word problems within 5 using pictures or objects as well as using a number line strategy.
- Math Vocabulary: number sentence, add, equals sign, equation, plus sign, total.
- In Social Studies, we will discuss President's Day with a focus on George Washington and Abraham Lincoln.
